

The Unwritten Laws of Business

Professional soft and management skills for
MANAGERS

What a beginning MANAGER needs to learn at once
(About self and others)

Professional and Personal behavior in the workplace
(Emotional Intelligence)

Delivered in four 1.5 hour sessions, the day concludes with an exciting game show format of Q&A and discussion with Watford City bucks prizes!

April 16th
at McKenzie
County Court House
~(or)~

8:30 – 4:00
Lunch
Provided

~(or)~
April 17th
at Roughrider
Center

REGISTER ONLINE:

<https://www.CityofWatfordCity.com/announcements>

By: Tuesday, April 14th 2020

Questions: Vawrita Best, vbest@nd.gov

There is a $ 40.00 registration fee. Lunch is included in that fee.

Facilitator, certified trainer, and P.E. Randy Wall, President of ELI, will guide participants through the unwritten laws of business, soft and management skills development, connect them with the responsibilities of managers, and provide insight on FLOW, and the secret to optimal human experience.

Limited to 40 people / day. Register without delay to reserve your place.
(P.E.s who attend will receive 6.0 PDH's)

Sponsored by:

Watford City EDC, McKenzie County JDA, Roughrider Center, Watford City Chamber of Commerce, and Roughrider Fund Community Enrichment Grant